

INTERBOR NOW

Issue #11

21st April 2014

SUMMARY

• Yellow Cross, European orthopaedic emblem	1
• VII FETOR Beca announced	2
• Pricing anatomico-mimetic coatings	2
• Otto Bock Ibérica, Orto Medical Care 2014 sponsor	2

Yellow Cross, the European emblem of our profession

INTERBOR has received approval to register the mark and the "Yellow Cross" logo as a symbol of our profession. Proposals will be submitted soon to each member of INTERBOR, so he can propose this label to all their members. Again, thank you to FEDOP for this initiative of «Cruz Amarilla" and congratulations to INTERBOR President, Edmond Deschoolmeester, for his persistence and perseverance.

VII Beca FETOR announced

By FETOR (Spain)

The Spanish Federation of Orthopaedic Technicians, FETOR, announces the seventh edition of "BECA Fetor", a recognition created to reward the effort and dedication of the young and upcoming professionals of the prosthetist sector.

As in the latest edition, the award is open to all students of Technical Orthoprosthetic final year from all schools and educational institutions in the Spanish state, as well as recent graduates who have completed and passed in both these studies recent academic years (2011-12 and 2012-13). The topics of the papers presented to "BECA Fetor" must be related to orthopedics or assistive products for disability (technical assistance), being its maximum reception term on June 30th 2014. The prize is 500 €.

The award ceremony will take place most likely during Orto Medical Care 2014, to be held on 20th and 21st November in Madrid.

First step in pricing anatomo-mimetic coatings

By UFOP (France)

A new working group met for the first time on January 13 afternoon at UFOP office. He has worked exclusively on the nomenclature of the HAS done during June 2010 (Haute Autorité de Santé similar to the British NICE). They proceed by anatomical level and distinguish four categories:

- Uniform tint series
- Natural tint series
- Custom tint
- Tint and personalized nail.

The profession associated with patient associations and learned societies that will parallel write a letter to the French Minister of Health to obtain supported by Social Security such addition.

Otto Bock Ibérica, Orto Medical Care 2014 sponsor

By FEDOP (Spain)

Orto Medical Care, the leading trade fair for orthopaedics, technical aids and professional services for the Elderly, will have Otto Bock Ibérica as its official sponsor in its 2014 edition, to be held at IFEMA-Feria de Madrid from 20th to 21st of November.

Orto Medical Care 2014 is a successful call, with over fifty companies that have already confirmed their participation in the best showcase of Orthopaedics in Southern Europe.

More info at www.ortomedicalcare.com